Introduction to Artistic Swimming

Artistic Swimming, previously known as Synchronised Swimming, is a sport that comprises multiple skills such as swimming, dancing, flexibility, and endurance. It builds discipline, self-confidence, and deviation in the athlete. This intricate sport will allow one to be in touch with their creative mind, giving them an opportunity to shine and have fun in the water.

Artistic Swimming comprises rhythm and flair to perform artistic movements choreographed to music. It is a fun and unique water ballet experience for a splashing good time. This programme is suitable for anyone aged 8 and above, and able to swim 25 meters confidently without aid.
