Fireworks and more as Singapore turns 59

Wear our national colours and celebrate Singapore's 59th birthday on 9 August at the Singapore Sports Hub. Look forward to exciting performances and interactive activities at the OCBC Square from 12pm to 4pm. Thereafter, watch the live screening of the National Day Parade (NDP) from OCBC Square or Stadium Roar from 5pm to 9pm. Chope your spot at Stadium Roar to catch the "Fly Our Flag" flypast. Don't miss the dazzling NDP fireworks display as it lights up the night sky, and stay on and be mesmerised as we set off our own fireworks over the Kallang Basin.

From now to the end of August, visit our National Day pop-up installation near the Water Sports Centre and capture photos to mark National Day. Test your knowledge and pick up fun facts about Singapore. You can also doodle and pen your wishes for Singapore on a colouring wall!

Local musicians take centre stage at Majulah Music Hub

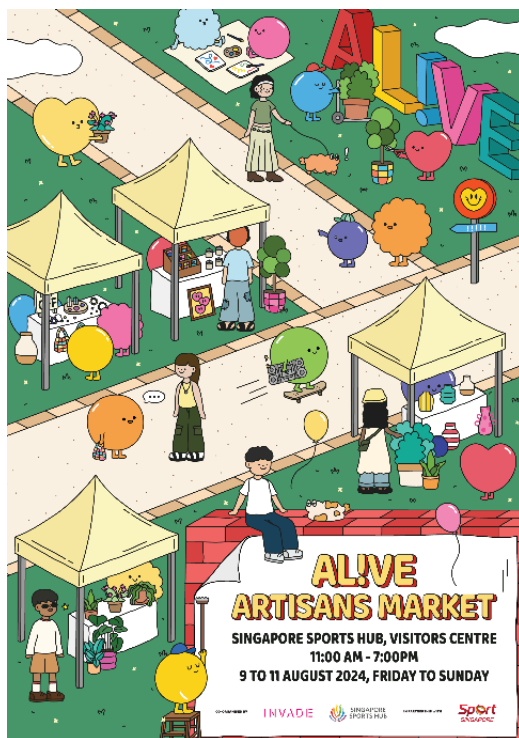

That's not all! We'll keep the festivities going on 10 August with the inaugural Majulah Music Hub! Taking place at the OCBC Square from 5pm to 8pm, Majulah Music Hub features a stellar line-up of homegrown talents. Catch performances by MICappella, Ben Hum, Kelvin Chen Wei Lian, Tay Kwei, The Island Voices, and Benjamin Kheng who wrote this year's National Day theme song, "Not Alone". Don't miss this exciting showcase of the best of Singapore's musical talents!

"We are thrilled to be performing at Majulah Music Hub at the Singapore Sports Hub. As a local vocal band, we always welcome and cherish opportunities to share our music with the community. Being able to perform back at the iconic Sports Hub and celebrating National Day with the community through our songs makes it all the more special," said Peter Huang from MICappella.

"The National Stadium has always held a special place in my heart, as a performer, music and sports fan, and Singaporean. I'm grateful to be able to grace its stage again and perform at the Majulah Music Hub alongside fellow local musicians. The Sports Hub really is the perfect backdrop to celebrate our country's legacy and future," said Benjamin Kheng.
